

The background is a gradient of dark blue and purple. On the left side, there are several concentric circles and a large arc with a degree scale ranging from 140 to 260. The scale is marked with numbers every 10 units. There are also smaller circles and arrows scattered across the background, some pointing in different directions. The overall design is abstract and geometric.

SNOA VOLLEYBALL MEETING

SEPT. 22, 2019

RULE CHANGES

Points of Emphasis

SIDE-FOLDING RETRACTABLE BACKBOARDS

- A vertical backboard raised to the side and up toward the ceiling, even though still technically vertical, is considered a playable overhead obstruction.
- A ball striking the raised backboard, regardless of how it is raised, above a playable area, shall remain in play provided the ball does not cross the plane of the net and is playable by a teammate.

R2 RESPONSIBILITIES

R2 (Down Referee) Duties and Responsibilities

Here are 6 "must dos" for the down ref to really help out the R1.

1. Manage the table and benches during the match
2. Before the start of the game, check each teams line up and signal the captains number to the R1
3. Whistle all requests for subs and timeouts during the game
4. R2 should also whistle with 15 seconds left for the timeout
5. Administer the coin flip for the deciding game
6. Defend your partner, don't throw them "under the bus"!!!!

R2 Responsibilities

What the R2 should be able to do (minimum responsibilities)

- Manage the court during team warm ups.
- Check each teams line up before the start of a set.
- Blow the whistle for timeouts and substitutions.
- Give the court back to the R1 after subs and timeouts.
- Whistle and signal out of rotation when the scorekeeper is sure there is a wrong server.
- Mimic the R1's hand signals.
- Blow the whistle and signal nets, centerline violations, or the ball hitting the antenna.

R2 RESPONSIBILITIES

R2 Training, know when to whistle

The R2 whistles when:

- A player is in the net
- A player crosses the center line
- The ball hits the antenna on the R2 side only
- A receiving team player is out of rotation
- A wrong server serves
- A replay situation occurs (ball on the court, player injured, etc.)
- A player enters the substitution zone to sub
- A team calls a timeout

R2 RESPONSIBILITIES

R2 Signals When

- Signals you don't mimic

There are two signals you don't mimic as a second referee.

1. The beckon signal for service.
2. A served ball that doesn't cross the net.

Beckon for service

Served ball not crossing plane of the net

- Signals you do mimic

 - Prevent Delay penalties by being proactive

PREVENTATIVE OFFICIATING

- Coaches
 - Prevent sanctions by anticipating questions and prepare appropriate answer(s)
 - Know rules thoroughly and communicate them brief and clear to not delay match
 - Remain CALM and POISED!!!!
 - Warn coach when needed
- Dealing with Assistant Coaches
 - The assistant coach may only stand to ask the second referee, during a dead-ball situation, to review the accuracy of the score, verify the number of time-outs used, request the serving order of his/her team or to verify the proper server for the opponent. He/she does not have the privilege to address the referees on other matters. The assistant coach may also stand at the bench to greet a replaced player, confer with players during time-outs, spontaneously react to an outstanding play by a player(s) of his/her own team, and attend to an injured player with permission of a referee. The assistant coach does not have the privilege to stand at the bench area during play. An assistant coach who tries to engage the second referee in discussion regarding a ruling is inappropriate and may result in a card.
